Connors Highway Open Saturday After Six Months

Connors Highway between Canal Point and Twenty-Mile Bend will be opened for traffic Saturday after being closed for the past six months. The J. D. Manly Construction company of Leesburg made record time in rebuilding the 14 miles of road after they were given the "go ahead" sign on Feb. 20.

More than 55,000 yards of muck were placed on the highway to form a dike following last fall's hurricane and flood. High waters running across the road before the dike was built and water standing on the road for months afterward contributed to its deterioration.

State Road Department officials had not planned to do a whole lot about rebuilding the road until Feb. 9 at a meeting of the State Road Department in Tampa when urgent requests were presented for relief.

A definite promise was made by road department officials at that meeting and within ten days after the meeting the contract was let to the Manly concern. The contractor has had the finest sort of weather for the job.

No new rock was added in the rebuilding program. The road was scarified, rolled and bound before the prime coat of oil was spread. The second coat consisted of oil and sand—thus providing what road builders term a "sand seal." How long it will last is a matter of conjecture when it is considered that much heavy traffic will go over the road.

Warren Will Speak In The Glades Twice Saturday Morning

Fuller Warren, candidate for governor, will speak in the Glades on Saturday (tomorrow) at Belle Glade and again at Pahokee. Mr. Warren is scheduled to speak in Belle Glade at 10 a. m. in front of the city hall. He will speak again in Pahokee on Nola's Corner at 11:30 a. m. Many of the Jacksonville attorney's friends are making an effort to see that the young candidate has a large turnout for his speeches.

School Children In WSWN Broadcast

A group of Canal Point school children will be featured on a radio program over the Belle Glade station WSWN on Saturday, April 3, at 10:15 a. m.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. Sorchie Beard, fifth grade teacher and music director at the local school, will include musical selections by the Second Grade Rhythm Band and the Flute Band which is composed of pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils. It will be concluded with the entire group of children singing.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Carpenter had as a guest Tuesday Art Bounds of West Palm Beach.

Information On Fishing Licenses

Q. Who must obtain a fresh water fishing license in Florida?
A. The Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission says the law exempts residents of less than 15 or more than 65 years of age and those of any age who fish non-commercially with a maximum of three poles in the county of their legal residence. All others must possess one of the following licenses: Resident of Florida, $2; Non-resident, $7.50; Non-resident, for 10 days, $2.25.

Fillmore To Conduct Pahokee H. S. Band In Concert At PTA Meet

Henry Fillmore of Miami, famous composer and immediate past president of the American Bandmasters Association, will direct the Pahokee High School Band in a concert at the April meeting of the Pahokee Parent-Teacher Association to be held in the high school auditorium on Thursday, April 8, at 8 p. m. Mrs. D. W. Cunningham, president, will preside at the business session.

Million And Half Tagged For Work On St. Lucie Canal

WASHINGTON—The house appropriations committee Tuesday approved an outlay of $1,600,000 for deepening and widening the St. Lucie canal in Florida. The money was included in an appropriation bill sent to the house.

Rep. Dwight Rogers said the money would enable army engineers to begin the first phase of a $200,000,000 state-wide flood control program for Florida. Deepening and widening of the St. Lucie canal for navigation was authorized by congress in 1946.

In the state-wide program worked out by army engineers, but not yet authorized, deepening and widening of the canal was listed as one of the first projects to be undertaken.

The St. Lucie canal furnishes the major drainage for Lake Okeechobee, running between it and the Atlantic Ocean.

Sen. Claude Pepper requested army engineers to consider construction of an "emergency channel" through Sebastian inlet in their state-wide flood control program. Pepper's request followed one to him by the city of Vero Beach.

Salvatore Spikes Rumor About Canal Point's School

"There is absolutely no foundation for the rumor," is the way School Board Member Carmen Salvatore commented when asked about the story going the rounds about Canal Point school going to be closed and turned into a colored school. "I've heard these unpleasant rumors," Salvatore said, "but there isn't anything to the report."

When questioned further in regard to the fate of the Canal Point school the member of the county school board pointed out that the school will continue to run without interruption.

Pahokee Band Wins Straight First Division Honors

Resplendent in snarky blue and white "Westpoint styled" uniforms, the Pahokee high school band under the watchful eye of Director Robert O. Lampi, played and marched itself into straight first division honors Wednesday night in the District 1 band festival at West Palm Beach. Lampi's charges qualified themselves to participate in the State band festival to be held in St. Petersburg April 15, 16, 17.

In Class C competition the Pahokee band went up against the splendid organizations from Belle Glade, Delray Beach and Homestead.

Director Lampi said Thursday morning that his group won first division honors in concert playing, sight reading and marching. The group performed excellently Wednesday night on Anderson Field under the direction of Miss Joann McLarty, majorette, who put the flashy organization through its paces much to the delight of the 5,000 Palm Beach county citizens in attendance.

Hundreds of Pahokee and Canal Point citizens were in the grandstand to watch the minions of Lampi carry away honors. The director had said in advance that competition would be tougher this year than in the past, but, somehow local folks expected the Pahokee organization to maintain its record of carrying off high honors. And, the youngsters didn't let the home folks.

Farmers Urged To Sign At Once For Conservation Set-Up

Farmers who are planning to participate in the 1948 agricultural conservation program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture must sign up not later than April 15, 1948, County Agent M. U. Mounts said yesterday. Mr. Mounts urges, all who are interested to do this as soon as possible so that they won't be left out of the program. The assistant county agent's office in Belle Glade will receive applications on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The office in West Palm Beach will receive applications on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Friend left Tuesday for their home in Wichita, Kansas, after spending the winter here visiting their son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hundley in Pahokee and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis L. Friend in Canal Point.

Willits Withdraws; It's Mrs. Wedgworth Without Opposition

E. M. Willits of South Bay last week withdrew from the race for school board member in the Belle Glade-South Bay-Lake Harbor district. In commenting upon Mrs. Ruth Wedgworth's candidacy Mr. Willits said:

"There was no other candidate in the field when I announced, and since Mrs. Wedgworth has been very active in school work and is well qualified, I feel that our district will be well represented by her."

"I am sure she will energetically and more capably represent our schools than I, and know the patrons will support her."

Loel Lence Named Head Local Legion

This Isn't Conscription

Speaking to the Conference of Mayors in New York, Joseph C. Crew, former ambassador to Japan, directly answered the criticism so frequently made that universal military training is conscription and therefore contrary to the American way of life. He said:

"Our jurisprudence does not rest on a voluntary jury system. Our taxes are not based on a voluntary taxpaying system. Our educational system is compulsory."

"U. S. military training is compulsory education in self-defense and in the defense of home and country—a purpose much more significant in consequences than many other forms of compulsion. Men lie dead in Europe and the Pacific today because their fellow-Americans were not trained in time or in sufficient numbers in peacetime to come to their assistance."

Others have tried to say the same thing, but it never has been more beautifully put.—Detroit News.

Billions for Bonuses

Kermit Bateman, demobilized Eighth Air Force corporal, has sailed for England because he can't find living quarters in this country for his wife and two children.

The situation here isn't really that desperate. Bad as things are, the Batemans still could find better housing, better food, better clothing in rural America than on the English farm on which English-born Mrs. Bateman has found a job for him.

But the fact that any veteran could give that straight-faced excuse for moving aboard should shame us. We have found billions to pay dribble bonuses to the boys, which will help them at most for a few weeks. Those same billions, wisely used, would have provided the housing Bateman says he couldn't find. Was it the regularity with which elections roll around that urged us to spend the billions on bonuses instead of on housing?—Pittsburgh Press.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

(By Russell Kay)

As the campaign for Governor swings into its final month we find nine Democratic and two Republican candidates in the field and a more or less bewildered and apathetic public.

With no major issues of sufficient public interest to arouse much concern, candidates are finding themselves hard pressed in their efforts to make an impression. Nothing new or startling has been injected in the campaign so far.

A review of the various appeals made from the stump last week reveals what might be termed "standard, run-of-the-mill, routine" political gum-beatings. Help for the farmer and citrus grower, sound business administration, economy, elimination of overlapping bureaus, better schools, aid for the old folks, elimination of tax on gasoline for boats and agricultural use, better roads, improved public health, aid for municipalities, no new taxes—none of these has aroused any tidal-wave of enthusiasm.

Those who have taken the trouble to turn out for the "speechings" seem to be more interested in what the candidate looks like, how he handles himself on the stump and who he has with him than in what he might say. No one knows how many of those who make up the "crowd" are qualified voters. A check of several gatherings in south Florida seemed to indicate that many were tourists, sun-hunters with time on their hands and a normal amount of curiosity and desire for entertainment.

So far the eleven man free-for-all has proven a rather tame affair. Contenders have contented themselves with shadow boxing, sizing up their opponents and keeping out of each others way, with the exception of Dick Cooper and Basil Pollitt who dash out of their corners, throw a wild punch and make themselves more or less annoying to the other boys who are sparring carefully and seeking an opening.

With everything to gain and nothing to lose, Cooper has bravely challenged the big boys to verbal duels and has joined Pollitt in pointing an accusing finger at campaign expenditures, which is one way to gain publicity and get in the other guy's hair. For the most part these antics of the lesser lights have accomplished little. It is reported that Tom Watson has accepted Cooper's invitation to a debate and will meet him on the public platform in Gainesville, March 29. Just who will knock whose ears down remains to be seen but the event should draw a good crowd and prove a good evening's entertainment.

Other candidates are perfectly content to let Tom Watson have the honors and none is better qualified for the task than the fiery Tampan who knows his way around in anybody's ring. This David and Goliath event will at least break the monotony of the campaign and give the customers something to talk about, but it is doubtful if it will prove very influential from a vote-getting standpoint.

Down Miami way, Bernarr Macfadden is beginning to flex his muscles and give evidence of getting in the melee in earnest. He eloped back in a big way this week at wisecrackers who have been kidding about his age by submitting to a thorough physical examination and checkup on March 18, 1948 by the Civil Aeronautics Administration for renewal of his private pilot's license. Macfadden came through with flying colors, the examination revealing him free from disease with no structural defects, vision and hearing okay. An experienced flyer, Macfadden plans to use his plane throughout the campaign.

Prognosticators and poolsters find general agreement that Fuller Warren is the man to beat and the question as to second man is about the most debatable one under discussion today. Answers vary depending on who and where you ask. Here it is Warren and McCarty, somewhere else it is Warren and Shands, or Warren and Watson, but the significant thing is that it is invariably Warren and somebody.

The boys seem to be pretty well bunched for second place. Shands, McCarty, English and Watson all appear to have substantial followings and none at the moment has moved far enough away from each other to make their position clear. After that is anybody's guess who is where and events of the next week or so should tell whether or not a dark horse will develop. The only possibility I can see Bernarr Macfadden who fooled the pants off a lot of folks in his senatorial race and is an admitted appreciator.

A lot of folks are discounting Tom Watson and the polls put him well down the ladder but the name Tom Watson is worth a whole hell of a lot of votes on any ballot and now that he is backing it up with strong verbal barrages you can look for him to move up into the first division. The political fog and smoke is plenty thick and nobody seems to be able to see very far at this time. All I can see is a lot of shadowy forms moving about, maybe you can tell me who they are.

Broking To Handle Macfadden Publicity

SEBRING—Nate Broking, former publisher of the Highlands County News of Sebring and one of the best known newspaper men in Florida, has been engaged by Bernarr Macfadden, candidate for Governor, to serve as his state campaign manager.

Broking has established his headquarters at Sebring and will direct activities from this point.

The Miami Beach publisher and nationally recognized health authority plans a vigorous campaign that will carry him to all sections of the state. He will campaign by plane as he did when he ran for the United States Senate a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alley and children have returned from Kentucky where they were called recently by the illness of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Phillips had as guests over the weekend his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phillips and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Phillips, all of Waucho.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

"Once you use that gun—you'll have a gun in your hand the rest of your life—and that's not for me—I like you too much!" That is what Elizabeth Scott says to Burt Lancaster in the intensely dramatic picture "I Walk Alone" which is to be shown on the screen of the Prince Theatre, in Pahokee, on Sunday-Monday.

Caught between the fury of love and hate, Burt Lancaster fell for a trick as old as Eve. After that episode Burt said: "Once I trusted a dame—Now I Walk Alone".

You remember this clever pair in "Desert Fury", it was when you saw them in this picture that you hoped you would see them again in another picture.

There's a great cast of featured players in support of this pair. There's Wendell Corey, Kirk Douglas, Kristine Miller and many other lesser-lights, but never-the-less, all of them pitching a great game of dramatics which makes this picture an outstanding show.

Says Burt: "What a fall guy I am—thinking just because a girl's good to look at—she's good all the way through!" Well, there's your show.

See you at the movies—Mal.

SHORT-CUT to Accident--

The quickest way across the street can be the most dangerous way. To cross in the middle of the block, rushing out from between parked cars, can be and too often is a short cut to accident — and death!

In Florida, 170 people were injured, 71 fatally, from these causes alone in our first peace year. In 75% of pedestrian accidents the victims were walking in such a way as to contribute to their own demise. Actually, drivers in relation to pedestrians are more careful.

Florida accident records for 1946 indicate that jaywalkers are even more plentiful and careless and are pushing the pedestrian casualty rate to a new high. Someone must do some life-saving — and that someone is you.

When you cross a street or highway be personally responsible for your own safety. Don't expect the other fellow to look out for you. Cross with the light if there is one — with greatest caution if there isn't. It's up to you to walk safely and live longer.

COOP NAMES OFFICERS

ORLANDO — Cooperative agricultural organizations should take the initiative in developing new markets for citrus fruits in rural towns not touched by wholesalers, John H. Davis, executive secretary of the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives, said here recently. The Florida Council of Farmer Cooperative elected Paul B. Dickman, of Ruskin, president of the organization for the third consecutive term. Other officers include James C. Brownies Inspect Everglades News

The Canal Point Brownie Troop, following the regular meeting on Thursday afternoon of last week, trooped to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Weeks where they were entertained with an Easter egg hunt and outdoor party. Refreshments were served to the group by Mrs. Weeks.

On Thursday the previous week the Brownies were invited by Paul Rardin to inspect The Everglades News plant. After watching the presses run, the linotype set type and other operations of the printing shop, the Brownies were taken to the Andrew store next door for a treat of ice cream by Mr. Rardin. Some of the Brownies were said to have been disappointed because Mr. Rardin forgot to show them the "printer's devil" and "type lice" which are supposed to inhabit every print shop.

CELERY HOLIDAY

ORLANDO — Florida celery growers took a shipping holiday from midnight last Saturday until midnight Wednesday of this week.

Prices on northern markets have been at an all-time low and it is hoped the holiday will boost them, said Chairman Andrew Duda, Jr., of the Florida Growers Association's celery division.

Northern prices had fallen as low as $1.25 a crate, which Duda said was "well below the cost of production in the field."

Tom Watson Opens Fire In Campaign For Governor's Job

TAMPA — Attorney General Tom Watson appears to be hitting his full stride in the gubernatorial race and plans to make at least one and a half and possibly two full swings around the state before the May 4 primary.

He received a hearty welcome in his home town at a big public rally in the Court House Square last week with more than 800 in attendance and practically all indicated they were Watson supporters.

He criticized Truman's national budget and charged that "since Truman has been president I have learned some realities that are not democratic The attorney general then ripped into Governor Caldwell's program. First he "reductantly" mentioned John T. Wigginton, Caldwell's former law partner, and said he received $36,000 in fees for validating bonds for the State Industrial Commission building, in addition to his $7500 a year salary for doing the work.

"The present governor is responsible for the government building center costing $100,000,000," Watson declared. "At first, I didn't oppose the government center because I thought it was a good idea. But I did oppose the way they (the Cabinet) went after it, because it was a big real estate promotion," he added with the statement, "The Legislature didn't set up the capital center area. It was set up by Governor Caldwell."

Watson reassured his supporters that what the polls show in the Governor's race is not a true picture. On the citrus problem, he said he would let all citrus growers and shippers and canners sell their fruit whenever, however and wherever they wished. The guy who is trying to sell by adding color "is going to have to make the inside as good as the outside looks," he added. He said he favored a minimum price law to prevent the cut-throats. He advocated having a Constitutional amendment specifying where the money will come from to pay school teachers and operate schools so "no experts ever again can produce a bill which no one can understand."

COLIN ENGLISH BELIEVES EVERY CHILD SHOULD HAVE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR A GOOD EDUCATION

The welfare and education of Florida's children has been the life work of Colin English. During his three terms as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, he has raised the quality of Florida's public school program from substandard levels to well above the national average. Florida's present educational system now serves as a pattern for twenty-seven other states.

The prosperity of any country, state or community depends directly upon the education of its children. Education is good business . . . it's the best business investment a state can make!

To protect our present gains, and assure continued progress in our educational program, we must elect a Governor who will give us forceful and vigorous leadership . . . a Governor whose heart is in education!

And, aside from his outstanding accomplishments in the field of education, Colin English is fully qualified now to fulfill the duties of Chief Executive of our state. He has gained a thorough knowledge of governmental affairs through eleven years of continuous experience as a member of the Governor's Cabinet, during the administrations of three governors.

As Governor, he will not have to spend valuable months feeling his way around . . . getting acquainted with the "job" of Governor. He knows now . . . and from the moment of his inauguration, he will be a full-fledged Governor!

Compare the experience, record of accomplishment and other qualifications of those seeking this high office, and you'll agree that it's to the best interest of ALL Florida, that you vote for and

Elect COLIN ENGLISH GOVERNOR

Egg Hunts Feature Easter Week End

Children of the Pahokee Elementary School enjoyed Easter egg hunts given by room mothers on Thursday afternoon of last week following the close of school.

Earl Chance Leaves For Hitch In Navy

Earl Chance, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Chance of Pahokee, has enlisted in the U. S. Navy and left Tuesday to start his boot training at the San Diego Naval Base.

Before his departure Earl was entertained at an Easter breakfast given by members of the First Methodist Youth Fellowship group in the recreation hall of the church following the sunrise service. He was also honored at a party Sunday evening following the presentation of the Easter cantata at the church and was presented with a gift by MYF of which he was president. Hostesses were Mrs. B. Diesel Locomotive Used To Haul Cane

A Diesel locomotive appeared on the Glades branch of the Florida East Coast Railway for the first time Tuesday on an experimental run hauling U. S. Sugar Corporation cane cars between the Bryant plantation and Lake Harbor.

It was reported that railway officials who accompanied the diesel on the experimental run were well pleased with the results. It was found that the smoother starting and stopping with diesel power causes less cane to fall off loaded cars which is a source of considerable waste in the run between Bryant and the Clewiston processing mill. It is said that FEC has several diesel-powered locomotives on order and may place some of them in service in the Glades area not only for hauling cane but also for moving fast trains of perishable vegetables.

James F. O'Neil, national commander of the American Legion, charged in Miami recently that Henry Wallace, third party candidate for president, was "selling a counterfeit bill of goods with his platform of peace and prosperity".

Freddie Blakey celebrated his ninth birthday anniversary at a party given by his mother, Mrs. Arch Blakey, assisted by his cub den mother, Mrs. Jess M. Elliott, at Mrs. Elliott's home Saturday afternoon with members of his cub den attending as guests. Following the playing of games and the serving of refreshments of ice cream and cake Freddie and his guests attended the double feature at the Prince theatre. Attending were Alfred Kahn, Benny Baxter, Pat and Chuck Elliott, Ronnie Alexander, Thurman Kemp, Douglas Gillis and Weldon Cardin, the latter winning the prize egg in the egg hunt.

Railroad Battle Is Headed For Courts

Jacksonville — The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad last week won another round in its long fight with the DuPont interests for control of the Florida East Coast Railway. However, the whole controversy appears headed back to the Federal courts for final settlement.

In a 6 to 5 ruling, the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, affirmed an order for merger of the FEC with the ACL. It refused to set aside its findings of April 8, 1947, that a reorganization for the FEC could be best carried out by consolidation with the ACL.

The St. Joe Paper Company, a DuPont firm and owner of a majority of the $45,000,000 first and refunding bonds of the FEC, had challenged the finding.

Indication that the DuPonts intended to fight it out in the courts came from Edward Ball, DuPont trustee, who said:

"We are satisfied that under all laws and the American way of life, the property belongs to us and we anticipate our views will be sustained by the courts."

The long case, which has involved numerous hearings in Florida and Washington, is under ordinary procedure of the litigation headed directly back to the United States District Court here. The ICC decision is still subject to approval by Federal Judge Louis W. Strum, before whom reorganization proceedings are pending. The District Court decision also could be appealed to a higher court and the final outcome of the fight could be delayed another several years.

The dissenting commissioners said they favored approving the recommendation of an ICC examiner that the St. Joe Paper Company be permitted to take over and operate the line.

"The record supports independent ownership and operation by local people rather than acquisition by the Coast Line," the minority asserted.

LIQUOR SUIT BROUGHT

TAMPA — A sixth action seeking an injunction restraining Webb's City, St. Petersburg drugstore, selling liquor below minimum prices allegedly fixed by the Florida Fair Trades Act has been filed in Federal Court here. The latest suit was filed by the Bernheim Distilling Company, of Kentucky. Others who have filed suits are: Hiram Walker, Inc., James Brucley and Co., Ltd., Seagram's Distillers Corp., Frankfort Distillers Corp., and Calvert Distillers Corp.

Elks Celebrate 80 Years Of Benevolent Activities

L. A. Lewis, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, dedicating the plaque.

During February Lafayette A. Lewis, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, in the presence of 16 Past Grand Exalted Rulers from all parts of the country, placed a bronze plaque on the ancient and famous old building, formerly known as Military Hall, at 193 Bowers, New York City, according to sword received by Harold Rosenberg, Exalted Ruler of Pahokee Lodge No. 1638. Lewis' action signalized the 80th birthday of a vast fraternal welfare organization which has grown from 15 New York actors to its present membership of 950,000 public spirited men with 1478 Elk lodges scattered through every state in the Union.

It was on February 16, 1868, that a group of actors, headed by an Englishman, Charles A. Vivian, organized the first Elk Lodge, New York "Mother Lodge" No. 1 in Military Hall and, with not political, commercial or religious interests, started the great order which has raised among its own membership and disbursed for countless charitable purposes more than eighty million dollars in addition to untold additional sums spent by local lodges. The aims of the founders are those followed by the Elks today. As stated on the plaque they are, "to inculcate the principles of charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity and to quicken the spirit of American patriotism."

Constant attention to disabled war veterans in 162 hospitals in all 48 states, the care of crippled children, the awarding of 100 college scholarships annually, to worthy but financially limited high school students, the sponsoring and financing of hundreds of troops of Boy Scouts, especially in underprivileged neighborhoods and largely with Elk World War II veterans acting as Scout leaders, Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, medical attention and dozens of other benefits to the local needy, are all parts of the Elks work, in addition to assisting the U. S. Army and Navy in securing recruits for our peacetime forces.

During World War II the Elks established more than 400 schools throughout the country through which thousands of young men were enabled to qualify for the U. S. Army Aviation Cadet Courses. In addition the Order maintained 155 fraternal centers near military establishments for the comfort and entertainment of Allied military personnel, recruited more than 100,000 ground crew men for the Air Forces, 97,000 Navy Seabees, 36,000 Army Engineers and recruited enough nurses to meet the requirements of the Veterans Administration, gave a million books to the Merchant Marine, produced and distributed 160,000 pairs of bed slippers to hospitalized soldiers, shipped millions of cigarettes monthly to troops overseas and performed scores of other useful tasks.

Since Pearl Harbor the Elks have grown from 400,000 to their present membership. A large percentage of the new members are veterans who saw the work the Elks did during the war and want to participate in the peacetime benevolences of the Order.

The Bank Executives Forum of the Florida Bankers Association will be held at the Sheraton-Plaza Hotel in Daytona Beach, May 17 to 21, it was announced this week by general chairman Fran W. Sherman.

Attractive Alma Warren Brightens Fuller's Home

JACKSONVILLE—An attractive and talented lady presides over the home here of Fuller Warren, whose ambition is to have her by his side in the Governor's Mansion at Tallahassee.

She is his gracious 30-year-old sister, Miss Alma Warren, whose silvery hair—like that of her brother—lends to her personality an air of quiet charm.

Alma, whose clothes are simple but reflect an instinctive good taste, is completely devoted to Fuller, even though the combination of a successful law practice and his intense interest in public affairs occasionally makes him late for meals.

"He's really quite punctual though, all things considered," Alma said with a smile. "Also, I'll give him credit for one thing—when he's going to be late for dinner he always calls us up and lets us know."

The candidate's sister is quite versatile, but a natural modesty prevents her from admitting any great proficiency in any particular field. She likes to play an occasional game of bridge, but says she is no fanatic about the game. She also enjoys tennis.

Alma was graduated from Florida State College for Women, now Florida State University, with a major in Journalism in 1939. She worked for a time as a reporter for the De Land Sun-News—a job she liked very much—and subsequently taught school in west Florida.

She also enjoyed the latter work "except that it's pretty hard to make a living as a teacher."

After two years with the state welfare board, Alma accepted a position in the Gainesville post office and worked there five years until the mother of the family, Mrs. Grace Fuller Warren, died in January.

THE WARRENS AT HOME—Fuller Warren and his gracious sister, Alma, enjoy an occasional cup of tea in their home, which Miss Warren has brightened with her talent for interior decorating.

Mrs. Warren's unexpected death left a great sorrow among her host of friends, who had looked forward to seeing her accompany Fuller to the Governor's Mansion.

Since January with the help of an old family servant, Annie Fuller, Mrs. Warren made her home at 1215 E. 1st St. Alma was a college graduate and a newspaper reporter. Alma apparently is unimpaired or, at least, appears in home-making. She especially enjoys decorating and working with flowers.

Both skills have helped considerably to brighten up the Warrens' comfortable but unpretentious home on Jacksonville's south side. Fuller, who was active as a youth in the Baptist Young People's Union, is a member of the South Side Baptist church.

Since the death of their mother, the Warrens have done no formal entertaining. Prior to their loss they had occasional parties—mostly small, informal neighborhood affairs.

Alma has been a guest at the governor's mansion in Tallahassee several times. But she's wasting no time thinking how it would feel to be Florida's First Lady. She's quietly confident Fuller will be elected, but says there is too much to do to spend time day-dreaming.

Alma is Fuller's only sister, although he has three brothers. They are Julian, 35-year-old Army veteran and University of Florida Law school graduate, who only recently entered practice in Jacksonville; Richard, principal of schools in White Springs; and Joe, the eldest, a lumberman at Blountstown.

New Contest Will Be Used To Increase S. S. Attendance

Start of a new contest to raise our Sunday School attendance to an average of 125 each Sunday will mark the Assembly period at the Canal Point Methodist Church at 10 A. M. on Sunday. Last year we had a great deal of fun when our goal was set at the unheard of average of 100, but since that time and with no further inducement, our average has stayed right up there at that mark. Easter marked the end of the contest last year and we were overjoyed to have a record-breaking 134 in attendance. In 1948 Easter was not emphasized in Sunday School attendance, yet we broke that record by one with 135 present! A full-enrollment system will aid the teachers in their work this year. Last year's competition will take a different, but even more interesting form.

The Morning Worship message in the service beginning at 11 a. m. will be "Blessed Are the Eyes Which See the Things That Ye See" from the text in Luke 10:30. In the evening at 7:30 the minister will bring to a close the series on "the will of God" with a sermon on "Discerning His Will." Many have remarked about the helpfulness of this series in their thinking.

Those who requested that their membership be brought to our church by transfer on Easter Sunday were Mrs. Roy Pope, T. M. Yeomans, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gavin. Hal Rosenberg and Joann Edenfield were received from the class in Preparatory Membership, bringing to twenty-four the number of new members added to our church this year. Joann, Richard, Betty and Emma Jean Edenfield were baptized bringing to nineteen the number of children and adults receiving the Sacrament this year. The doors of our church will be open again this Sunday.

The Canal Point MYF will be host to the Glades Sub-District at the church on Tuesday, April 6. Monthly meeting of the Young Married Fellowship with the Pope Sears and Harlan Sears as hosts will be Friday, April 9.

EUROPE WANTS FRUIT

ORLANDO—Fruit hungry Europe has not developed a post-war market for Florida citrus because of lack of dollars, Dr. Fred A. Motz, fruit specialist of the Department of Agriculture's office of foreign agricultural relations, said here recently, adding that plenty of citrus could be sold in Europe if currency controls were ended.

Dr. Motz recently returned from Austria where he served as agricultural adviser on the occupation staff. His local address was at an informal meeting arranged by the United Growers and Shippers Association.

Miami glamor girls have developed a zany new beach pastime which they call mobile archery. Aiming and firing arrows at a stationary bullseye from the open top of a speeding Crosley Sports car offers plenty of thrills.

Must Have License To Post Political Posters On Highway

Be careful where you put political posters.

The state road department's division of outdoor advertising warns campaign workers that candidates placards can't be put along the highways without a license for each.

The warning applies to signs posted outside the limits of municipalities. Even with a license, you can't put posters within 15 feet of highways rights of way. Nor can you put them on telephone poles or trees.

Director Max Denton of the outdoor advertising division said that means the small placards generally used by candidates are virtually useless on the highways.

State Board Halts Phone Raise Hearing

TALLAHASSEE — The State Railroad and Public Utilities Commission has postponed until April 5 further hearings on the rate increase application of the South-eastern Telephone Company.
